January 1, 2004

1. Traditional Noni Juice is approved by the Food and Drug Administration of Thailand and registered with the Department of Export Promotion. Asian Pacific Noni Co. Ltd. manufactures 100% Pure Traditional Noni Juice in Thailand under FDA License 21-1-24845-1-0001. Traditional Noni Products Co., Ltd. holds the sole license for export of our products from Thailand.
2. All exports of Traditional Noni Juice are arranged through Traditional Noni Products Company, Limited.
3. Prices are quoted in US dollars and are subject to changes in currency exchange rates.
4. Prices quoted are from our facility in Thailand and do not include shipping.
5. For large orders (ie. one Full Container Load and over) each shipment must be ordered 6 weeks prior to boarding date. For export shipping, allow up to 4-8 weeks shipping time from boarding. Your deposit and order confirmation locks in the order and shipping date. Subsequent orders are similarly arranged and scheduled in advance according to your delivery requirements.
6. 50% of the purchase price is due upon confirmation of your order. The balance is due FOB ship. We accept letters of credit and bank transfers payable to Traditional Noni Products Company, Ltd. Our account information will be forwarded upon approval of your order.
7. Traditional Noni Products offers special labeling and packaging services for export shipments. The importer/buyer is responsible for obtaining all necessary labeling and packaging information, requirements and approvals from the appropriate agencies in the intended countries/markets, and providing us with the correct label printing information. Please contact us with your requirements to obtain a quotation for any additional costs.
8. Importers of our products are responsible for knowing and meeting all labeling requirements, import regulations, product certifications, etc. in their intended markets. TNP Co. Ltd. assumes no responsibility for the importer/buyer's failure to know and abide by all laws and regulations within their own markets.
9. Importers are responsible for insuring their shipments. TNP assumes no responsibility for freight damaged during shipment or transport after freight has left our facility.
10. Samples: To keep our premium quality Noni Juice affordable, we do not send free samples. We will send your desired quantity of Traditional Noni Juice for evaluation at our already amazingly low prices. We know you'll be more than satisfied with the quality of our product.
